Dear Mr Vajgl,

President Van Rompuy has asked me to reply to your letter of 10 January.

I confirm that a telephone conversation took place on 10 January between the President and Prime Minister Janša. This was in the framework of a series of phone calls made by the President to various Heads of State or Government on the issue of the succession of the chair of the Eurogroup. The President does not comment or intervene in domestic politics of Slovenia.

Yours sincerely,

Richard Corbett
Member of Cabinet
